Colds. Coughs, Spitting of Blood Bronchitis Difficulty of Breathing. Asthma. Pain in the Side, Breast and Chest, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all Discuses of the Liver and Lungs.

They Die of Consumption. BEWARE OF THE DESTROYER.—How many persons put off from time to time that most important calling—attending to their health before it be too late. Look around us, particularly in our city, and we will daily behold hundreds of persons, whose coun tenances bespeak suffering with disease of the lungs and a ptotracted cough, fast approaching their immortal destination, without perhaps, being sensible of their serious situations. May this warning awake them in due season, and at once seek relief, which is to be found in Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, a safe, pleasant and certain medic ne for the cure of a cough and the premonitory symp toms that lead to CONSUMPTION. This medicine immediately heals the irritated Membrine of the Bronchi and Lungs, gives strength and support to the enfeebled frame, thus causing the lungs to throw off the viscid secreted matter that accumulates and settles upon Remedy! Dr. Duncan-Dear Sir :- You my perhaps remember that I consulted with you at your office in Cincinnati, in June last, when you examined my lungs and informed me that there was a small cavity forming in the lobe of my left lung, with slight ulcerations, and advised me to take a few bottles of the EXPECTORANT REMEDY, which I bought of you (6 hottles.) I have used 4 of them, and feel as well as I ever did in my life. My cough disappeared after using the first bottle, the pain in my breast also left me, my strength increased and also my appetite. The medicine caused me to expectorate large quantities of foul matter; after this was all thrown up, I felt relief at once. I think that the whole world should know something about the good effects of your "EXPECTORANT REMEDY," for the removal of the fi st symptoms leading to Consumption. Please inform me if you think it advisable for me to use the medicine any longer. Yours truly, and ever grateful, HORICE SINNS.

After using six bottles he became perfectly satisfied that the medicine was certain to cure him as well as ever. He sent for six bottles more, and is happy to state to those afflicted, that he has used 4 of them and became in all respects hearty, and feels himself entirely cured. He wishes these lines published in the public papers, that others afflicted with Consumption may know the virtues of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, and spars their lives.

In the class of diseases called chronic, the Graefenberg Pills achieve their highest triumphs. Here they defy all competition. Entering within the hidden recesses of the system, they quietly but surely purify the blood, root out disease, and give tone and vigor to the body. Cures are Constantly Effected By these Pills, in cases where every other means had utterly failed-The most abundant proof of this could be given, but a trial of one box will convince the patient.
